

OLIVET CHRISTIAN COLLEGE NEWSLETTER

Number 10
6 April 2023

Soon after that first Easter, followers of Jesus began greeting one another by saying, "Christ is risen; he is risen indeed!" The message of the gospel is validated in these few words: "Jesus is risen!" The world is filled with religions built on different philosophies or personalities. But only the Christian faith claims its founder was raised from the dead and is alive today. "He is not here. See the place where they laid him." This is the heartbeat of the good news. The cross and the grave are not the end! Following Jesus is not a dead-end street. Today, in all the world, Jesus the living Lord is on the move. We are to follow in his footsteps, bringing the good news of Jesus' victory over sin and death by our words and by our actions. We need to tell others so that they may know Jesus, the risen Saviour of the world. I pray that as our families remember and celebrate what Easter is truly about that we will be blessed. Have a great holiday break!
