The Olivet News

Our character trait for the past two weeks has been honour—Honouring God, our parents, our government and honouring each other.

Tomorrow we are honouring Mark Best as several of the staff and parents attend Mark's Thanksgiving Service. Mark and his wife, Julie, were parents at Olivet and their daughter, Kelly, was a student here for many years. Mark died two weeks ago in France.

Mark continued his involvement with Olivet as our plumber and we have appreciated his assistance over many years.

When I was thinking about Mark, I was reminded about the following verse:

"A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold." Proverbs 22:1

Mark had a good name in this community. He was well loved and respected by all who knew him.

During Assembly and Chapel this week, the staff shared with the students about honour. The students were challenged to be young people who are known for honouring all those whom God has placed in authority over them and to honour their friends as valued people. If they learn to honour God and others, they will have a "good name".

drink, medications and clothing appropriate for an outside day. There is a need for umpires and helpers (see Geoff), and parents and supporters are invited.

CONVENTION PREPARATION

Convention preparation is a big priority this term. It is good to go to the website www.scee.edu.au and under school services find the section Student Convention, scroll down to find the Convention guidelines. Study them carefully to ensure that items fit the guidelines, including photography, art/craft/ essay writing, etc.

Please make every effort to complete items well ahead of time to avoid the last minute rush towards the end of Term 3.

Mrs Donaldson is the Convention Co-ordinator and will help you with any questions relating to the guidelines.

CONVENTION PHOTOGRAPHY AND ART FRAMING

Students, please remember that Mrs Browning will matboard your photos for around $8.00 each for Convention. If you would like your photos matboarded, would you please bring them to school as soon as possible.

All Artwork for Convention needs to be framed and Mrs Browning can do this for you at a reasonable cost.

Please give your photos and artwork to Mrs Donaldson and she will take them to Mrs Browning.
